

2-Bedroom Apartment in Agioi Omologites, Nicosia

For Sale : € 265,000

Description

This new-build development offers a select collection of two-bedroom apartments finished to a considered specification. Living areas are laid in ceramic tiling and bedrooms in parquet flooring, complemented by white interior emulsion paint and anthracite aluminium frames with double thermal-insulating glazing. Every apartment includes a solar water heater, an independent pressure system, electric heating and a 2kVA photovoltaic system, while glass balcony railings, glass shower doors and electric bedroom shutters add a further layer of comfort and security. Bathrooms feature wall-hung, built-in sanitary ware and decorative gypsum ceilings, and kitchens come fitted with granite worktops. A central antenna system and colour video door entry are provided throughout, and each apartment includes a dedicated storage room and covered parking space.
