

1-Bedroom Apartment in Paphos

For Sale : € 469,800

Description

Located in the university district of Paphos, this development sits close to a major international university campus, within walking distance of the local football stadium and near the city's administrative and financial quarter. Its architectural design draws inspiration from a blooming lotus, with the building's form gently rippling outward and its glass and metal facade creating a shifting interplay of light and shadow through the day.

Studio, one, two and three bedroom apartments are available, each with a designated covered parking space, and most residences include a storage room and a green planter area. Every apartment benefits from solar water heating.

Proximity:
500m - local football stadium
